SPOTLIGHT // KIDS DISCIPLESHP

This past Wednesday night we hosted a milestone celebration for our third graders along with their families. Why is third grade such a big deal, you might ask? Well, third grade is a huge transition year and marks the move from lower elementary to upper elementary, from being an early reader to being a more independent reader, and from a storybook-style Bible to a full-text version of the Bible. We recognize that this year marks a time of "growing up" with more physical and spiritual independence, and we believe that it's worth celebrating!

To make this night personal, we gifted each child with a personalized ESV Bible that will grow with them as they transition from Kids Ministry to Student Ministry in just a few short years. Along with that, parents wrote special prayers or blessings, knowing that these will mean even more to the children down the road. And finally, Kids Ministry staff, pastors, and families wrote favorite scripture passages on sticky notes and placed them in the kids' Bibles. The notes serve as spiritual connection points and also show the children that the Bible is important to the those who love them and are investing in them. If you see a child with their Bible in worship or at Kids Discipleship, let them know that you noticed and encourage them in their new habit of bringing God's Word with them.
