SPOTLIGHT // EMBRACE MINISTRY

This has been a fabulous year for the Embrace Ministry! In August, we started a Bible Study on Wednesday evenings for students and adults with disabilities. The curriculum is written by a mom of an adult child with multiple disabilities and is HIGHLY interactive. We eat together, read God's Word, watch a video retelling the story, act out the Scripture, draw the story as we retell it, and use object lessons to apply the message. It is also a great time of fellowship and worship. We end our time by sharing individual prayer requests and praying for one another. The friendships, confidence and joy that have grown out of this time are precious!

In August we began with 3 participants but by May, we had grown to:

- 6 participants
- 2 volunteers
- 2 paid workers
- 2 staff

As our ministry and study grow, we continue to need teachers and volunteers to help share the gospel with you and your neighbor. Spread the word, that Signal Pres has a Bible Study designed specifically for students and adults with special needs with your friends, coworkers, and neighbors. If you are interested in serving, email Cara Rock.
