Community Group Informational Lunch Meeting TODAY!

Community Groups are made up of a group of friends following Jesus, becoming more like him, and blessing our church and community. They are gatherings of 6 to 12 people meeting in homes throughout Signal during the week.

In Community Groups people learn to live ordinary life as the faithful presence of Jesus' love through worship, Bible study, fellowship, and prayer. Our goal is to have Community Groups serve as one of the primary places for pastoral care at Signal Mountain Presbyterian Church.

There are three ways to join a group:

1. Invitation: Someone from a group may invite you to their group. Or you may discover through casual conversation that someone is part of a group and ask if you can join them.
2. Request: You can indicate your interest in being in a Community Group by signing up on the church's website, emailing Paul Manuel or calling the church office (423-886-2190). We will respond as soon as possible.
3. Start a New Group: Perhaps you have been involved as a participant or leader of a small group in another congregation before you came to Signal Pres. You may be interested in helping to start a new group. We welcome the opportunity to talk with you about it.

TODAY there will be an information lunch about Community Groups in Woodward Hall 12:30-2 PM. You are invited! Child-friendly options are available.
