SPOTLIGHT // ADULT DISCIPLESHIP

August is just around the corner, and with it comes the invitation to explore the riches of the Gospel and to be equipped to live as the faithful presence of Jesus in your ordinary life. This August we have a number of opportunities that are open and available to all desiring to take a next step.

Men's and Women's Bible Study: The Gospel is an invitation to freedom – from performance and fear and for love and security. This Fall we invite you to join us in studying Galatians, Paul's "epistle of freedom," and to embrace this wonderful truth in heart and in mind. In small groups and under gifted teachers we'll take another step into trusting in the glorious good news of the Gospel.

Men's Study (Mondays 6:45 – 8 AM) begins August 21

The Story of the Bible: It can be intimidating to open your Bible and try to read it for yourself. Who among us has not given up on trying to read through it when we reach the book of Leviticus? This class gives you the tools to be able to confidently read Scripture for yourself. First, you'll learn the what the Big Story of the Bible is and how each of the Bible's 66 books fits. And second, we'll give you the basic skills that you'll need to be able to read the Bible for yourself and apply it in your ordinary life. Register Here
